educational programme

Ever wondered how science teachers like you could get more creative inspiring young minds? Wonder no more with The Schooling School educational programme. Unlike anything you have ever imagined, you can now choose to engage and entertain your young charges via Dive 'N' Teach – a special surprise segment designed to wow unsuspecting students.

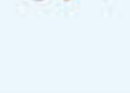

With help from our guides, dive into the marine tank to demonstrate how fishes and divers adapt differently underwater. Also get to communicate with students outside of the tank via the unique marine communications system – a first for any educational programme.

Students will develop a deeper understanding and appreciation of various topics like adaptation, evolution, marine biology and conservation in the exciting Ocean Discovery Tour. Indeed, it's interactive fun taken to a whole new level!
